The Angler's Boutique Resort Wins 2009 Tablet Hotels Selection Award

Hotels Worldwide Honored for Excellence in Industry

New York, February 4, 2009 – Tablet Hotels (www.TabletHotels.com), the world's leading source for unique luxury and boutique hotels, today announced that The Angler's Boutique Resort was awarded the 2009 "Tablet Hotels Selection" Award. This award, which is being presented for the first time, recognizes The Angler's Boutique Resort's excellence in service, accommodations and guest satisfaction - maintaining a consistent online guest rating above 17 out of 20 points.

"Tablet Hotels has distinguished itself as the hospitality industry's authority in the selection and presentation of special hotels worldwide," said Laurent Vernhes, CEO of Tablet Hotels. "Our award winners have played a vital role in Tablet Hotels' success, and we are proud to show our appreciation for the high standards they set for themselves and for the industry each day."

Three-hundred hotels received this year's award. Together they reflect, at the highest level, the qualities and the kinds of experiences that Tablet Hotels looks for and values in each of the hotels selected. They represent hotels of all sizes and from every geographic region – from bustling cosmopolitan centers to picturesque villages nestled into the farthest corners of the world.

"The 'Tablet Hotels Selection' Award is a source of great pride for The Angler's Boutique Hotel," said Karen Brown, VP of Marketing for The Angler's in South Beach, Florida. "We are steadfast in our approach to personalized, sincere guest service and value for the price paid. In today's economy, not only do guests desire and expect a fantastic experience but there is also a personal level that we try to connect on with each guest that we feel sets us apart. We feel this quality is a hallmark of Tablet Hotels and why we are proud to be recognized among the world's most extraordinary hotels."
